

Steve Robinson Transition Offense Notes

They have a primary break and a secondary break

Primary = 2 defenders or less, they should get a layup.

Secondary = More than 2 defenders & go into secondary break looking to score.

Never rebound the ball over your head, catch it at shoulder level/in front of the body.

Working on pitch aheads layup.

Looking for layups, in primary break.